Navigating Infinite Change

Building Innovation-Ready Enterprises

Today, organizations face a volatile, uncertain, complex and ambiguous business environment where the predictive models of the past – budgets, forecasts, long-term strategies and information architecture – can become redundant overnight.

One crisis follows another, demanding an immediate response and – often – a

5 Digital Assets for Innovation-Ready Infrastructure

To become 'innovation-ready', organizations must build IT infrastructure that provides a flexible environment to implement and take advantage of new technologies and services (see inset.)

This infrastructure should combine five key digital assets with hyperscaler cloud services (see figure below). Namely:

- A unified digital platform
- Agile solution delivery
- Advanced analytics capabilities
- Hyper-automation
- Business-IT fusion
